

Purpose

Partnership between AHA, PHA and Tocal College to build Australia's capacity to respond to biosecurity emergencies

Our strategic priorities:	Increase engagement, capability and capacity with nationally accredited biosecurity emergency response training			Provide rapid and flexible access to quality training materials
We aim to:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Increase the capability of biosecurity response staff in the member jurisdictions 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Enable the use of BERTA training by industry groups 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Increase national biosecurity emergency response training delivery capability and capacity 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Develop and facilitate delivery of quality training resources drawing on industry best practice
By focusing on these outcomes:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Provision of quality accredited training by approved trainers • Providing support to jurisdictions so they can offer accredited training • Strengthened relationships with partnering organisations and their stakeholders 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Increased awareness of biosecurity emergency response training • Tailored training products specialised for industry sectors • BERTA contract trainer database 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Increased training staff capacity developed through mentoring and support from contractors • Providing support services that enable jurisdiction and contract trainers to deliver quality accredited training to their stakeholders 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Continuous improvement of the BERTA training products – both online and face to face • Close liaison with industry technical experts, biosecurity response managers and practitioners • Industry standard online delivery platform and materials
Measures:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 10% increase in delivery and participation in BERTA training programs • Completion rates of skill sets and full qualifications above industry average • Survey results demonstrating relevance, quality and satisfaction • Biosecurity Emergency Response qualifications on Tocal College scope of registration 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Uptake of BERTA resources in industry • Number of tailored programs delivered with industry members • up-to-date Tocal website • Referring interested persons to jurisdictional training managers • Number of current contract trainers available 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Qualified and approved trainers available in each jurisdiction • Trainers conducting courses in their jurisdiction and meeting Tocal administrative requirements 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • High level of satisfaction with training materials and delivery evaluation results from students and trainers • Recognition and acceptance of BERTA training and assessment materials and practitioners by jurisdiction biosecurity agencies • Sustained increase in visits to AHA and Tocal websites (20% per annum)
Foundational activities/ inputs:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • BERTA resources – Online courses and material for face to face workshops 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • AHA and PHA Communications Plans • BERTA Project officer and Tocal College staff 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Register of trainer qualifications • Credit Transfer and Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) assessments tailored to each trainer's requirements 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Technically sound and industry accepted training and assessment materials • Industry recognised and accepted trainers