

Introduction to Agronomy

You are invited to participate in the nationally accredited Introduction to Agronomy course. This training is aimed at equipping you with the skills and knowledge to confidently carry out sampling procedures, interpret agronomic advice and implement recommended cultural practices in the field. The focus is on practical Agronomy at an operational level.

Who should attend the course?

Farm staff, farm supervisors, contractors, service providers with a minimum of 2 years experience in industry.

How long this is course?

- 4 days plus online component.

What does the course consist of?

Online component	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Reading & instructional videos.• Short quizzes & assessment.
Workshop 1:	A two-day interactive session including practical demonstrations.
Workshop 2:	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• A two-day interactive classroom and field-based session.• Interpretation of farm soil test results.

2022 course dates coming soon!

Complete and submit your application now to register interest for your area.

Accredited training

The Introduction to Agronomy course is aligned and delivered against vocational education and training requirements.

Successful completion of assessment tasks will result in achieving a Statement of Attainment and can contribute to a nationally recognised qualification.

Units of Competency

AHCBAC404 - Plan and implement agricultural crop maintenance

AHCSOL401 - Sample soils and interpret results

AHCSOL202 - Assist with soil or growing media sampling and testing

Apply now to register your interest

Apply now

Click above or go to <https://nswtrade.wufoo.com/forms/introduction-to-agronomy/>

What is AgSkilled™

AgSkilled™ 2.0 is a $15 million investment by the NSW Government to upskill and better prepare the agricultural workforce for fast-moving change driven by industry innovation, research and technology through vocational education and training (VET), particularly in the plant-based fibre (e.g. cotton), grains, production horticulture, viticulture and rice growing agricultural industry sectors across rural and regional NSW.

www.tocal.nsw.edu.au/courses/short-courses/agskilled

Funded training delivered by Tocal College through AgSkilled™, supported by the Department of Regional NSW